

Out & About: Sweet 16 Semi-Finals

Sunday, August 2, 2009, The College of St. Benedict. Taken from www.kjasr.com
HOPKINS Royals 45, NEW LONDON-SPICER Wildcats 35

Hopkins started out with four straight scores and led 7-0 before NLS found the bottom of the basket on a Justine Dammermann trey. That by the way was the only Wildcat score in the first quarter as Hopkins, with their stingy defense, led 13-3. Hopkins continued to add to their margin out to 14 points (23-9). A pair of threes helped NLS cut the margin down to 25-16 at the half time break. An 11-5 run in the third quarter by NLS put a new spin on the game. The baskets that came easily at the start of the game became a tad more difficult for Hopkins. And NLS had six of those points at the line. A three by Sydney Coffey and inside basket by Tori Joranson helped up the Hopkins lead to 37-29 going into the final quarter. Hopkins maintained their lead throughout the fourth quarter with NLS getting as close as seven (39-32) with under four minutes left. Hopkins scored on their last four possessions to stop any NLS comeback chances.

Notes.....Hopkins had a +12 advantage in turnovers..... Both teams were tepid at the line with both checking in at .500..... The difference is NLS went to the line 14 more times..... NLS had 37% of their points at the free throw line, Hopkins had 13% of theirs at the line..... 51% of NLS points came from behind the arc..... NLS made only two 2 point field goals the entire game..... After the first quarter Hopkins & NLS each scored 32 points.
