

Out & About: Sweet 16 Quarterfinals Hopkins/Worthington

Saturday, August 1, 2009. The College of St. Benedict. Taken from www.kjasr.com

HOPKINS Royals 54, WORTHINGTON Trojans 34

Worthington led 8-7 midway through the first frame and the first quarter ended with the Royals holding a 12-11 lead. But the big factor came when Gabby Boever for Worthington went down with an ankle situation. It was early in the second quarter when Hopkins led 16-13. The Royals ruled the rest of the quarter with a 19-6 advantage. Worthington was thrown off kilter with Boever on the bench getting her ankle iced and taped. Kaitlin Gerber was their only other ball handling source and the Royals dialed up the pressure forcing 7 turnovers in the last 12 Trojan possessions. Hopkins needed their 35-19 advantage to start the third, because their offense went on vacation. Hopkins didn't score until their 12th possession of the quarter on a put back by Shannon O'Toole. In the meantime Worthington had cut the margin down to 8 points and Boever was back on the floor. Hopkins made up for missed opportunities with an 8-2 run to close the quarter with a 43-29 lead. Hopkins scored the first 7 points of the fourth quarter for a 15-2 run across both quarters. At the widest Hopkins led 50-29. The only managed four points the last six minutes. The Royals will need to be more consistent on the offensive end if they plan on playing the championship game on Sunday.

The Second quarter was big for Hopkins..... a 15 point margin in that quarter alone set the tone the rest of the way..... Gabby Boever went down with an ankle injury in the first quarter and Worthington never recovered..... Boever did return to action in the second half..... Martha Awal had 14 d stops..... Hopkins had 7 more chances at the free throw line, but had one fewer made free throw..... Hopkins had a +16 advantage on turnovers..... Sisters ruled with Hopkins having a pair---Coffey (Nia/Sydney) and O'Toole's (Shannon/Erin); Worthington had Boever (Gabby/Bernadette) and Gerber (Mackenzie/Kaitlin)
